

Born in 2023 from an idea by Giovanni Diana, Blink-132 is an Italian tribute band dedicated to passionately and faithfully celebrating the greatest hits of the legendary Blink-182, icons of global pop-punk.

We are a trio of professional musicians, each committed to embodying the spirit and energy of the corresponding original member of the historic Californian lineup:

Antonio Luciano – guitar & vocals

Giovanni Diana – bass & vocals

Salvatore Laurella – drums

Faithful to both sound and stage details, we perform wearing official outfits from the clothing lines founded by Blink-182 (To The Stars, Famous Stars & Straps, Atticus, Hi My Name Is Mark) and use signature instruments to authentically recreate the band's original sound.

A Live That Comes to Life

In our concerts we don't just play songs: we include studio-produced sequences to make each performance an unforgettable experience, capable of thrilling audiences just like a real Blink-182 live show.

Our Musical Background

Beyond the Blink-132 project, each of us brings a strong background in professional music:

- Salvatore Laurella is a session drummer for Still Charles and has toured Europe as an opening act for international artists such as Evanescence, Yellowcard, Disturbed, and Kongos.
- Antonio Luciano is part of Ice-Angels 32 and collaborates with Marco Borsatti, sound engineer for Måneskin and other major names in Italian music.
- Giovanni Diana founded a well-known Oasis tribute band and actively participates in several musical projects in Southern Italy.

The Fanbase Behind Us

We are proudly supported by Blink-182 Italia, the largest Italian community dedicated to the band, with over 76,000 followers on Facebook and 107,000 on Instagram.

Blink-132 is not just a tribute band: it is the most authentic way to experience today the electrifying energy of Blink-182, as if you were standing under their stage.

Antonio Luciano – Guitar & Vocals

In Blink-132, he impersonates Tom DeLonge, obsessively perfecting every detail: from the guitar tones to the official outfits, down to the use of signature instruments. His passion for pop-punk and precision in recreating DeLonge's style make every performance authentic and true to the original. From the very first 2001 Stratocaster signature to the most recent Starcaster, Antonio owns the full collection of Tom's signature guitars. The very first Starcaster distributed in Europe was delivered to Antonio in March 2024.

Giovanni Diana – Bass & Vocals

Founder of Blink-132, on stage he brings Mark Hoppus to life, faithfully recreating his sonic and visual identity. From signature bass choices to Hoppus-inspired outfits, every detail is designed to give the audience the same impact and authenticity as the original performances. His vision and meticulous care are the beating heart of the project.

Salvatore Laurella – Drums

With explosive energy and flawless technique, he embodies Travis Barker, recreating the power and sonic impact that defined the unique Blink-182 style. Focused on groove and detail, he combines precision and strength to transform every concert into an adrenaline-fueled explosion of rhythm.
