Sermig Meeting Point Arsenal

The name "Meeting Point Arsenal" was chosen to highlight our commitment on bringing together different cultures and religions, able-bodied and disabled people, young and adults.

All of this, to search for a real opportunity of dialogue, focusing on the weakest and trying to overcome differences and pursue peace.

The name we chose also highlights our commitment on promoting mutual respect between religions and helping people to focus on present difficulties, like disability and material and spiritual poverty, and not on past hardships.
