🎓 Course Presentation

Milan Medical School – Università Ambrosiana

Academic Year 2027

The Milan Medical School of Università Ambrosiana, an international leader in medical education on the paradigm shift in medicine—Person-Centered Medicine—as well as in clinical research and application in Clinical Adolescentology and Medical Counselling, presents the educational offerings for the Academic Year 2025–2026.

📚 Two-Year Master's Programs

- Person-Centered Medicine
- Clinical Adolescentology
- Medical Counselling with the Adolescent
- Licentia Docendi in Person-Centered Medicine
- Person-Centered Cardiology
- Adolescent Health Education
- Person-Centered Oncology (in preparation)

🎓 PhD Programs

- Person-Centered Medicine
- Clinical Adolescentology
- Adolescent Health Education
-

🎯 Educational Objectives

- First Year: Learning the paradigm shift in medicine, Person-Centered Medicine, the concept of health, and the person-centered clinical method.
-
- Second Year (in specialized Master's programs): Clinical in-depth study dedicated to patients with specific health issues.
- The Adolescent Health Education course is also open to graduates in Educational Sciences and high school teachers.

🌍 International Program The Milan Medical School coordinates the Person-Centered Medicine International Program, which includes:

- Master in Person-Centered Medicine
- PhD in Person-Centered Medicine
- Post-doctoral Course in Person-Centered Medicine

📌 Info: www.scuolamedicamilano.it – www.personcenteredmedicine.it

🏛️ Endorsements & Sponsorships The courses are endorsed by:

- National Research Council (CNR)
- World Society of Person-Centered Medicine (WSPCM)
- World Health Committee (WHC)
- National Health Committee (CSN)
- Person-Centered Medicine International Academy (PCMIA)
- Italian Society of Adolescentology and Adolescent Medicine (SIAd)
- World Federation and Society of Adolescentology (WFSA)

👨‍🏫 Faculty The School is directed by Giuseppe R. Brera, who introduced the paradigm of Person-Centered Medicine (1999) and Adolescentology (1993) to the world.

Among the lecturers:

- Piermario Biava, candidate for the 2026 Nobel Prize for the discovery of adult stem cell reprogramming.
- Paolo Lissoni, world pioneer in clinical psychoneuroimmunology applied to oncology.
- Claudio Violato, international leader in Medical Education research and Adolescentology.
- Vito Galante Leader in epistemology of Person-Centered Medicine and Kairology-Adolescentology
- Flavio della Croce leader in Adolescentology
- Mariangela Porta leader in Adolescentology and Person-Centered Obsteyrics and Gynecology
- Carla Pettenati leader in Neurolgy of clinics of Alzheimer and cognitive decline
- Claudia Borreani Leader in Psychooncology
- Antonio Licari pionieer in Person-Centered Cardiology
- Paolo Garascia leader in Medical Counselling and Adolescentology
- Domenico Francomano pionieer in Person-Centered Emergency
- Imer Paolo Callegaro pioneer in the adolescent health

CME: Participation in the Master's program fulfills annual CME credits.