The works range from watercolours, oils, raku ceramics, and engravings.
The symbolism-an archetype that is common is the search for the man and its inner movements, between light and darkness.

The various themes that scans have a "realism symbolic, rather than didactic, thus leaving to the observer the task – really intriguing – "complete", with the look and with the mind, what you just mentioned on the smooth surface of the paper."(Fappanni-art critic)

The theme of her very dear is the woman, and the metamorphosis :
"My women are out of focus, suspended pieces, at times sensual, at times almost invisible."
