PROJECT COLD SONG

LEAD & BACKING VOCALS, LYRICS: MONA BARRY
MUSIC: MAX VENTURA

-Morning mist, cloudy eyes, dark to light, a newborn cry,
Northern Star, shine your light, take me home.

-Innocence, leads the way, my odyssey, will take me there
Northern Star, shine your light, take me home.

-Society, challenge me, don't linger, set me free
Northern Star, shine your light, take me home.

-Unrequited love, say their name, broken hearts, a lovers game
Northern Star, shine your light, take me home.

-Stability, captures me, waves of change, enlighten me
Northern Star, shine your light, take me home.

-Eternity, return to dust, down i lay, in You i trust
Northern Star, shine your light, take me home.

LEAD AND BACKING VOCALS: MONA BARRY
MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-Sliding out of a blackhole field, that I know
Burn myself in the core of a star, that I know How it feels, it's a thriller and I'm all in When shining is all that matters, in a world that locks you in.

-Mission control is calling out and I know,
Fix the statics as loud and clear and I know How it feels, it's a killer and I'm all in
When falling in spirals, over a world that no one knows,
And crashing, on the surface,
into frozen flames.

-Walking out of my wreckage now, O M G!
Meeting up with the locals now O M G!
I didn't feel, like a winner, but I'm all in,
But I am sorry, oh so sorry, I didn't mean,
to end this speeding train, of broken dreams,
oh so sorry,
And I'm falling, all falling,
I'm falling, all falling now...

HYMN-SOMNIA

LEAD & BACKING VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MONA BARRY
ADD. MUSIC & COMPOSITION: MAX VENTURA

-4 AM I'm lying in my bed, daylight peering thru the curtains
Nightmare comes then fades away, is this the morning beckoning
Eyes wide open, shadows dancing on the wall, is this the day that we will fall
Wake Up World, wake up, wake up world, and fill my cup...

Wake up world, lift me up, wake up world, wake up wake up world, wake up, wake up world, fill my cup.

-Find your name, on my phone, sent a message, and play a game
Instagram in all its glory, silent ping, another story
-Made up reels, a world at war, silly games, gone too far
Eyes wide open, shadows dancing on the wall, is this the day, we will fall.

*Wake up world, lift me up, wake up world, wake up
wake up world, wake up, wake up world, fill my cup
Wake up world, lift me up, wake up world, wake up wake up world, wake up, wake up world, fill my cup*

(BRIDGE)

*Wake up world, lift me up, wake up world, wake up
wake up world, wake up, wake up world, fill my cup
Wake up world, lift me up, wake up world, wake up
wake up world, wake up, wake up world, fill my cup
Wake up world, lift me up, wake up world, wake up wake up world, wake up, wake up world, fill my cup....*

STELLA (VERSIONS 1 + 2, LYRICS COMBINED)

LEAD VOCALS, LYRICS, ADD. MUSIC: DARREN EDWARDS MUSIC, BACKING VOCALS: MAX VENTURA

-Rooms filled with something new, accuses I can't embrace
There's a new face on the ?????, and a feel I can embrace Hearts fade in the millenias, and secret words in the sand the twilight raise a simulacra, and frozen days in my hand....

*My eyes are blind... like a movie star
I can never, I should never, I will never,
face another day, without you.*

I'm falling down on the truth, you throw me out to the blue
I could never have loved again, and tears go by in the rain
Three A.M. no trace, I'll never forget this place
Your accidental rendez-vous, and tears run down on your face

*I can never, I should never, I will never,
face another day, without you.*

-Rooms built for something new, but windows have no view,
Seasons passing for wanting you, love the color of blue
Collide the scope of change, Collide the world of my day
Every breath a memory, every feeling's the same.

My eyes are blind...

-Rooms built for something new, but windows have no view,
Seasons passing for wanting you, love the color of blue
Collide the scope of change, Collide the world of my day
Every breath a memory, every feeling's the same.

*My eyes are blind... l'immacolata
A sense of divine, Stella adriatica...*

Three A.M. no trace, I'll never forget this place
An accidental rendez-vous, and tears run down on your face
Hearts fade in the millennia, and a thin veil of a lie
Holds the key to your fire....

AUTRES LUNES AU CIEL

PART 1 VOCALS IN FRENCH, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA
PART 2 & 3 VOCALS: MONA BARRY

PART 1:

Pourquoi je ne peux pas savoir pourquoi,
D'autres lunes au ciel
Même tous les anges, la raison q'elle Elle est partie
Sous de nouvelles lunes et de nouveaux ciels
Le temps passera, et enterrera
Toutes nos pensées, sous d'autres lunes au ciel, autres lunes au ciel, autres lunes au ciel.

PART 2:

Time fades away, won't stay the same,
our words get lost into the sunlight,
And other moons, far from our world,
we walk alone under the twilight,
We're on a stage, where drama waits,
our hearts on fire and eyes in flames,
You played your life, a sacred role, king of a play that no one sees.

-My drama king, your scenery,
a golden cage without a key.
while I froze up under the sky,
still seeking meaning in your will.

PART 3:

Moons in the sky, unknown to me,
the clouds are gleaming in a sunlight
I'm on my knees, internally,
no-one remains to see this twilight,
Time fades away, I'm not the same,
my words get lost into the sunlight,
And other moons, far from my world,
I walk alone under the twilight,

SUNSET OF THE MACHINE

LEAD VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

BACKING VOCALS: MONA BARRY

Extra Gaelic dialogues: Charlie Seeley

-In a quiet place, in the evening comes a feeling that I can relate to something that is happening in my life.

-And it turns to be, that the sunset settled down and dug a hole pretty deep into my already tired heart.

Pity there's no way out of the stairwell to my emotions that would come crashing down, crashing down.

*Sorry but I can't, spare the only lifeline holding me this far,
holding me this far, and hard,
holding me this far, and hard...*

JARDINS NIKITA- ENGLISH VERSION

VERSE VOCALS: MONA BARRY

CHORUS VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-When / the winter wind is pushing far
The gardens / and all my memories within
And every lane / that brings me closer to your heart
And every leaf / a sun that is no longer here
It's always you, every step that leans to you
Every sound it's always you....

*Just go,
And take what I was away,
Just go,
And lift me up where I belong*

It's always you, every step that leans to you
Every sound it's always you....

*Just go,
And take my all self with you,
Just go,
And take what I have been away,
Just go,
And lift me up where I belong,
Rise up,
Oohh....
Rise up,
Pull me clear of this town,
Sky high,
And let the past all fall down from me,
Heaven
Since I was so deep down.
Ohhh,
Let me touch up the sun
It was you,
That I cannot forget,
Just you, just you
Just you...*

JARDINS NIKITA – ITALIAN VERSION

VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-Quando / il vento spinge i miei passi
Ed entra / insieme a tutti i miei ricordi
In quei giardini / immersi dentro la memoria
Su ogni foglia / un sole già dimenticato
Sei sempre tu, ogni passo sempre tu
Ogni suono sempre tu....

*Just go,
And take what I was away,
Just go,
And lift me up where I belong*

Sei sempre tu, ogni passo sempre tu
Ogni suono sempre tu, ...

*Just go,
And take my all self with you,
Just go,
And take what I have been away,
Just go,
And lift me up where I belong,
Rise up,
Oohh....
Rise up,
Pull me clear of this town,
Sky high,
And let the past all fall down from me,
Heaven
Since I was so deep down.
Ohhh,
Let me touch up the sun
It was you,
That I cannot forget,
Just you, just you
Just you...*

AMBER, JADE

VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-Another side of truth is hidin', burnin' hot
Killing all our secrets in a single shot
And even if I call this game to end or not There ain't nobody left to witness what comes out.

-Doubtful about miracles, but they're never far
You leaving with a stranger in a foreign car
Amazing all the colors that you pulled so far Initially the moment seemed exceptional.

-If only I had cherished what we had enough
Amber, jade and glitter, and so many stars,
-If only I had cherished what we had enough
Amber, jade and glitter, and so many stars,
Amber, jade and glitter, and so many stars,
Amber, jade and glitter, and so many stars,
...And so many stars.

SCORPIO RISING

VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-So much silence in the morning when she leaves, falling back to sleep, nice and easy is the light, calls me when she's done and there I come, silence in the evening when her car gets back to town.

-That's my only weakness that she hates, innocent emotion that will flutter all about,
wakes me in the night when all is still, silence in the room while all the world will listen in.

-Even if I'm fearless there's a reason I don't know, I'll keep it in my recess for as long as I will need, exit at the right where all my people wait for me, silence will remind me that I still got stuff to give.

-Never does a dove fly over any thunderstorm but for every storm there is a break that shows the sky, sky where all the wings of many jets cut shining thru silently consuming all the love I had for you.

SOMETIME, SOMEWHERE

BACKING VOCALS: MONA BARRY

-Sometimes, somewhere,
seems I had a little bit of love around myself seems I had a little bit of everything to care for,
Sometimes, somewhere...

-Good times, close friends,
it just seemed a little bit unkind to hide away,
It just happened that I needed other things to care for,
Then good times, and close friends.

*In the evening, you can notice,
on my face, in my hands, and in my walking,
That I can, and that I will, do the things and say the words, nobody else can...
Doesn't matter, I'll be alone now,
I don't mind it, I don't mind it anymore...*

-I don't mind it,
that I never get a simple answer when I talk,
That I never get a simple destiny to care for,
I don't mind,
Anymore... (AD LIB)

WALLS OF ORION SUITE, PART 1:

EINE STADT, SIEBEN STRASSEN

VERSE VOCALS: ALBERTO FERRARI "THE SYNTESIST"
CHORUS VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-Eine Stadt, sieben Strassen / Wir sind sie zusammen massen, Doch der Abend kennt uns nicht / Und die Zeit vergass das Licht.

-Sag mir, was geblieben ist / Zwischen Licht und Nebelmist.
Diese Stadt vergisst uns nicht / Doch sie spricht in kaltem Licht.

*-Oh Tell me what is left behind, / Between the night and wintertime
This town will not forget us cold, / I will stay on...*

-Eine Stadt, vielen gassen, / Worte, die man nie vergass, Deine Hand war einst bei mir, / Doch sie schwand wie Dunst aus Tür.

*-Oh Tell me what is left behind, / Between the night and wintertime,
This town will not release us cold, / I will stay on...
-In cold light and glaring dusk, / Right thru these walls and our past,
This town will never turn us old, / I will stay on...*

*-In cold light and glaring dusk, / Right thru these walls and our past,
This town will never turn us old, / I will stay on...
-All these years and not a change / night has never been too far one town and seven streets away, / we will live on...*

WALLS OF ORION SUITE, PART 2:

STAR

VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-Stare tra la gente che non sente niente,
Immaginando cose che avverranno dentro la mia mente
Sovrapporre il vero all'inesistente
Inutile soffrire senza diventare resistente...

*-Star, I can never be anything else,
I am a star, and I'll never be anything else,
I am a Star...
I am a star, and nothing else.*

-Radiocontrol 9 is aware,
A million voices screaming in my airwaves to slow down,
Burning in my engines is my will Every second trading speed for everlasting light...

*-I am your star and I'll never be anything else,
I am a Star...
I am a star, and nothing else.*

WALLS OF ORION SUITE, PART 3:

VELVET

VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

A special reflected sunlight, that came in dreams when I was just three In the early days in the garden
the world was there for me,
-All around me STRANGE COLORS,
and a velvet light behind,
I remember seeing places,
only existing in another time.

*-Eleven-hundred blazing suns, many millions afterburning stars,
Unknown sunsets, haunting nights,
heard the calling of a single heart
A velvet light behind, and a shimmering around my eyes
The picture's there...*

-I remember roaming new worlds,
where flowers bloomed right into the clouds,
Where time and space had a different shape,
another day with a brand-new sky,
-Then I said, please explain, where are they runnin' that I cannot go?
But soon I had to rephrase, What am I living that they cannot live?

*Eleven-hundred blazing suns, many millions afterburning stars,
Unknown sunsets, haunting nights,
heard the calling of a single heart
A velvet light behind, and a shimmering around my eyes
The picture's there... The picture's there...
And a shimmering around my eyes
The picture's there...*

PROJECT SILENCE

VERSE VOCALS: MONA BARRY

CHORUS VOCALS, MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

-Silence / in my mornings, quiet / thru the day living / in the moment, takes / away the pain.
Silence, brings patience, pleasure / invade me,
Desire, releases fever, burning / all in vain.

*Where the sky is turning golden as the shadows drift away,
I can feel the road I'm holding, leading me back home today."
"Through the quiet of the evening, I can hear the soft refrain, Every step I've left behind me, Fades into the light again.*

-Silence / brings memories, shadows / fade away waiting / for tomorrow, while / I find my way
-Silence / in my heartbeat, coldness / in my veins
Dreams / become the fire, lighting / up the rain.

*As the evening light surrounds me, I can feel the city breathe,
Every corner that I walk through, Brings a piece of you to me.
With the skyline wide and open, I'll keep moving through the night, Every thought we left unspoken, Finds its voice as I pass by."*

-Silence / holds the answers, echoes / in my head walking / through the darkness, following / the thread.
-Voices / from the distance, calling / out my name
I know / there is a reason, hidden / in the pain.

*With the stars above still shining, I will chase the open sky, Every dream I left unspoken, Finds its voice as I pass by."
"Every streetlight tells a story, As the night keeps pulling near,
I'm not chasing distant glory, I'm just finding what was clear.*

-Silence / feeds the hunger, waiting / for the sign moments / turn to visions, lost / between the lines
-Breathing / under starlight, falling / into space time / becomes a river, washing / every trace.

*In the quiet of this moment, I'm exactly where I'll stay,
No more looking for tomorrow, I've come back to here today."
With the daylight slowly rising, I know this is where I'm free, Every step I've taken forward, Brings me back to being me."*

SATELLITE SHORES

VOCALS: MONA BARRY

MUSIC & LYRICS: MAX VENTURA

Extra Russian dialogues: Igor & Alla Repin

-If there's a way to let you know, that I'm returning here to spend my now and my beyond
-If there's a thing I do not know, is why I wasn't missing the endless shores of my new world.

-Now every fading light I see, is calling out the name I buried long ago along with mine
-And every breath I leave behind, becomes another thread that leads me home towards my heart.

-I now remember who I was,
before the years had turned me into a stranger's face
-I never dreamed that coming back, would feel as if I'd never left this everlasting place

-No words could ever tell this tale, my silence knows the weight of every road that I've crossed
-At last I leave my restless heart, the colors that I carried deep where no one else could see
-And in the stillness of this dawn,
the floating spires are pleading to be touched by destiny.
